We, mcrcc.org, are honoring the amazing life and accomplishments of individuals whose everyday work contributes to a forever improving Middlesex County. This celebration is an opportunity to see our community come together and to be inspired to work towards a better diverse and inclusive future.

I think this year's Community Leader of Distinction is also even more relevant to you and your organization, in that, we are celebrating the accomplishment of six awesome individuals, of which three are Amazing and Outstanding Latinos

They are :

David Hernandez, Jr

Jorge E. Diaz

Deputy Chief Michael Bobadilla

David Hernandez – Business Leader of the year (Jersey Memorial Group, Old Bridge)

Jorge E. Diaz – Public Servant of the Year (Superintendent, Middlesex County Magnet Schools)

Deputy Chief Michael Bobadilla – HomeTown (New Brunswick Police Department)

Each of these individuals have contributed in their own way, in spite of different career paths, to the betterment of the community and deserves to be recognized.
